New message from Christyan Simbolon

Software Engineer · Remote

Hi Stallios Team,

Thanks so much for the invitation! I've just signed up and started exploring the Stallios platform — really love the creative, social-first approach you're taking. It looks like a fun and refreshing take on social engagement.

I'm genuinely excited to learn more about what you're building and how I might contribute as part of the engineering team. Let me know what the next steps would look like!

Best regards,
Christyan Simbolon
